Kiwi News

Dear Parents and Carers,

We are already well into Term 4, and it's been another busy week here at Kiwi. The children thoroughly enjoyed their World Book Day on Wednesday and you did a fantastic job with the various costumes and the incredible 'Story Spuds' (lots of photos at the end of the newsletter). School closure on Thursday, has made for a bit of an unusual week, but I am glad the weather stayed fine for the children. We end our week with Funky Friday – a reward day with Disco Dion, which I am sure the children will love, and we also have a visit from our MP Danny Kruger this afternoon. I hope you all have an enjoyable weekend and that the weather stays fine.

RED NOSE DAY

This year Red Nose Day is on Friday 17th March. In school, our school councillors have been planning some fun activities for everyone to take part in.

RWI Parents information Meeting

Thank you so much to all of you who attended our Read, Write Inc phonics meeting this week. It was lovely to share how we teach phonics with you all. If you were unable to make the meeting you will be sent home a parent's booklet that will answer any questions that you might have. Your children have been bringing home Storybooks to share with you and should be able to read every word within their book. The children read each Storybook three times at school and again with you at home. On each reading, children's fluency increases and the more they can focus on what the story is about. Re-reading the same book helps children to become confident readers. They have also been bringing home a Book Bag Book which links to the story they have read in class which again only contains sounds that your child is confident reading.

WORLD BOOK DAY

2 MARCH 2023

We had an amazing World Book Day in school. The costumes looked amazing and so many children put a fantastic effort into their story spuds! The school council had lots of fun voting for their favourite story door. It was so good for the children to share their love of reading with each other and take part in some amazing fun activities .
